

Green Thoughts From the Underground, mixed media, 96 x 60" amArthouse, a new gallery in Bantam, CT - situated in a historically-thoughtful 1775 colonial restoration, is dedicated towards curating Contemporary Art.

amArthouse's inaugural exhibition features Richard Pitts, a prominent artist of the Post War Art Movement in New York.

Pitts explains, "I am inspired by the idea that my work is not just placed in the landscape, but that it creates a landscape and, in turn, the landscape creates the sculpture."

A full collection of his sculptures, paintings, prints, and drawings will be on view in Gallery 1.

Recent work by Chris Kelly, Robert Messyas, Steven Lowy, and Mario Busoni will also be on view in Gallery 2.

September 25, 11-7pm by appointment only.

October 2, Galleries will be open to the public 11-8pm, artists' reception 4-7pm

MARIO BUSONI — ROBERT MESSYASZ — CHRIS KELLY — STEVEN LOWY

